

Bose Johnson Releases Her New EP

Bose Johnson, Nigerian born UK based artist, has released her new EP, Concoction. It is composed of 5 tracks which feature a blend of soul, Afro-pop, reggae, and fuji. "My EP is an expression of my authentic self and I want to share the experience that has shaped my journey as a musician up to this point," said Bose. The EP is a follow-up to her single "Yo Momma" in 2017 featuring Mystro.

Along with the EP, also marks the release of a video of a track from the EP, "There goes". The video is in a class of its own and expresses the love and admiration for a lover, or significant other, in an authentic, jazzy and sultry delivery, devoid of distracting effect and simply reflects the theme of the song.
